Eve Cho Guillergan, Esq.
Principal

Eve opened her law practice in 2004 after working for several immigration firms. She started practicing immigration law in 1992 right after graduating from law school. She took an immediate liking to the field when she took a course in immigration law at Rutgers University School of Law in Newark, NJ. She was fortunate to find a position in the field when a law school friend was changing jobs and recommended her for a position. From 1992 to 1995, Eve litigated numerous asylum and deportation cases for individuals of the Sikh faith. From 1996 to 2004, Eve worked for several immigration firms and her work took on a more corporate appeal. Eve managed corporate accounts for investment banks, shipping companies, multinational electronic and car manufacturers, and computer consulting companies. Eve was responsible for managing accounts and her supporting team.

Eve is currently the Co-Chair of the Practice Management Committee for the American Immigration Lawyers Association, New York Chapter, which is the largest chapter of the largest association of immigration lawyers. She is also a member of the Local Government Liaison Committee and Citizenship Day Committee. Eve has been long-standing member of the AILA NY Pro Bono Committee, which was awarded the Innovation in Bar Leaders Award by the New York State Bar Association (2011).
